DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Drawings

2. The drawings are objected to because: in Figure 8, step S842 should include "CACHE" instead of "CASH". Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

3. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

4. A substitute specification in proper idiomatic English and in compliance with 37 CFR 1.52(a) and (b) is required. The substitute specification filed must be accompanied by a statement that it contains no new matter.

The specification contains many awkward phrases that appear to be the result of a direct translation from the Japanese priority document. Although some portions of the specification are understood by the examiner, the specification is not adequate to explain the features of the claims, especially those features noted in the rejection below. Note, for example, the explanation of "common information" on page 6 is no different than its recitation in the claim. Further explanation appears on page 7, including language such as "an alphabet is set in rotation", which is not understood at all by the examiner.

Claim Objections

5. Claims 6-10 are objected to because of the following informalities: in each of these claims, "cache" should replace "cash". Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

6. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

7. Claims 1-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The errors contained in claim 1 are cited as examples of the errors appearing in the rest of claims 2-14:

(a) In line 5, it is unclear what “caused by” modifies, i.e., either “A method” in line 1, or “writing” in line 3 or “data is to be written” in line 4.

(b) In lines 5 and 6, should “location information” be replaced with “address”? or is it something different?

(c) In lines 7-10, the claimed “common information” is not properly explained, i.e., does it refer to information that all sectors share in common? Or is it some kind of payload data (see Figure 2)? The explanation provided in the specification on pages 6 and 7 does not clarify this critical feature at all.

Thorough correction of all of claims 1-14 is required.

Conclusion

8. It is not possible from either the specification or the claims to determine the scope of this language or to determine the metes and bounds of the claims. The examiner has attempted to determine whether allowable subject matter exists or whether a rejection would be necessary in accordance with Ex parte Ionescu, 222 USPQ 537 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1984), however, without understanding what the claimed "common information" is and what it does, a meaningful search for relevant prior art is not possible.

Due to the ambiguities in claims 1-14 as cited above, no art has been applied thereto, see In re Steele, 49 CCPA 1295, 305 F. 2d 859, 134 USPQ 292 (1962) and In re Wilson, 424 F.2d 1382, 165 USPQ 494 (CCPA 1970). The examiner will not speculate as to the intended meaning.

9. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to James Peikari whose telephone number is (571) 272-4185.
